

RACING IN A SUMMER STORM.

EOLE'S RETURN TO ACTIVE LIFE.

A DRIPPING AFTERNOON AT MONMOUTH PARK—MCNAULIN'S SUCCESSFUL RACE.

The rain yesterday did not get fairly under way until all who wished to see the Long Branch races had started for the track. Hence the attractiveness did not fall far below that of previous days, but spectators, judges, jockeys and horses passed a damp and disagreeable afternoon. The only race of interest was that between Eole and Drake Carter, and the former was so much favored in the weights that the result simply depended upon his condition. Eole became lame at Jersey City on May and was sent to Brighton for a course of sea-baths. He has an excellent action and has now shown signs of weakness. But the seeming rest will come in the champion stakes next month when the big horse will run a mile and a half with his full weight. If he wins that race it is understood that he will contract Dr. Carter with all the force of his best, and his prospects of returning as the champion of the American turf are leaving a worthy successor in his three-year-old brother St. Savion are brilliant.

The judges made a singular decision in the two-year-old race. Eole was ridden so badly by a most step Pepto. One of Pepto's jockeys, made a bet with Mr. McNaulin, whereby Eole would be disqualified if he refused to sustain it. It was so plain, so gross, so outrageous a foul that their decision caused great surprise. Both sides were equally qualified a few days before the meet, appearing to foul thickly. The race was next followed by the Gipsy. The seating rest will come in the champion stakes next month when the big horse will run a mile and a half with his full weight.

Notwithstanding that the day was cold, cloudy and rainy at intervals, there were a number of ladies present. The dullest of crowds were well drenched but appeared to be happy.

The time of the race was as follows:
